

WILLIS TOWERS WATSON PUBLIC LIMITED COMPANY

Audit and Risk Committee Charter

Purpose

The Audit and Risk Committee (the “Committee”) of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Willis Towers Watson Public Limited Company (the “Company”) shall have the purpose to assist the Board’s oversight of: (1) the integrity of the Company’s financial statements; (2) the selection and oversight of the independent auditors; (3) the Company’s compliance with legal and regulatory requirements; (4) the independent auditor’s qualifications and independence; (5) the performance of the independent auditors and the Company’s internal audit function; (6) the establishment and maintenance of proper internal accounting controls and procedures; (7) the preparation of an audit committee report as required by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) for inclusion in the Company’s annual proxy statement and as required by the NASDAQ Stock Market (“NASDAQ”); (8) risk management at the Company and its subsidiaries; and (9) the enterprise risk management framework, policies and practices used to identify, assess and manage key risks facing the Company and its subsidiaries.

Membership

The Committee shall consist of a minimum of three members of the Board who shall be appointed by the Board and have been determined by the Board to be independent as defined in the NASDAQ listing standards, as amended from time to time, and the rules of the SEC. No director may serve as a member of the Committee if such director serves on the audit committees of more than two other public companies unless the Board determines that such simultaneous service would not impair the ability of such director to effectively serve on the Committee, and discloses this determination in the Company’s annual proxy statement. They shall serve at the pleasure of the Board and for such term or terms as the Board may determine. In making such appointments, the Board shall consider any nominations recommended by the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee.

All Committee members shall be able to read and understand fundamental financial statements, in accordance with NASDAQ audit committee requirements. In addition, at least one member will have past employment experience in finance or accounting, requisite professional certification in accounting, or other comparable experience or background, including a current or past position as a principal financial officer or other senior officer with financial oversight responsibilities; and the Committee will have at least one member qualified as an “audit committee financial expert” as determined by the Board in accordance with SEC rules.

Committee members may invite other directors, members of management, outside professionals, or others to the Committee’s meetings and provide pertinent information as desirable, necessary or appropriate.

Delegation

The Committee may, in its discretion, delegate a portion of its duties and responsibilities to a subcommittee of the Committee in accordance with the Company’s articles of association. The Committee may, in its discretion, delegate to one or more of its members the authority to pre-approve any audit or non-audit services to be performed by the independent auditors, provided that any such approvals are presented to the Committee at its next scheduled meeting.

Structure and Operations

The Board shall designate one member of the Committee as its chair. The Committee shall meet in person or by telephone, videoconference, and/or any other method of electronic communication at least four times per year at a time and place determined by the Committee chair, with further meetings to occur, or actions to be taken by unanimous written consent, when deemed necessary or desirable by the chair or a majority of the Committee members. In addition, the Committee will meet at least four times per year with each of senior management, the Company's internal auditors and the independent auditors in separate executive sessions. A majority of the authorized number of Committee members will constitute a quorum for the transaction of Committee business, and the vote of a majority of the Committee members present at a meeting at which a quorum is present will be the act of the Committee, unless in either case a greater number is required by this charter, the articles of association or the NASDAQ listing standards. The Committee will keep written minutes of its meetings and deliver copies of the minutes to the corporate secretary for inclusion in the Company's corporate records.

Duties and Powers

To achieve its purpose, the Committee shall have the following duties and powers:

Independent Auditors

With respect to the independent auditors:

1. to appoint, compensate, retain, oversee and terminate the independent auditors (subject, if applicable, to shareholder ratification) and any other registered public accounting firm engaged for the purpose of preparing or issuing an audit report or to perform audit, review or attestation services for the Company or its consolidated subsidiaries (which authority includes resolution of disagreements between management and the auditors regarding financial reporting);
2. to approve all fees and engagement terms relating to audit-related and non-audit related engagements;
3. to pre-approve all audit, review, attest and permissible non-audit services (including any permissible internal control-related services) to be provided to the Company or its subsidiaries by the independent auditors, and the Committee may establish pre-approval policies and procedures in compliance with applicable rules of the SEC;
4. to take account of the opinions of management and the Company's internal auditors in assessing the independent auditors' qualifications, performance and independence;
5. to review, evaluate and discuss formal reports from the independent auditor regarding the auditor's independence, including a delineation of all relationships between the auditor and the Company, and take appropriate actions to satisfy itself of the independence of the auditor;
6. to obtain and review, at least annually, a report by the independent auditors describing the firm's internal quality-control procedures and any material issues raised by the most recent internal quality-control review, or peer review, of the auditing firm or by any inquiry or investigation by governmental or professional authorities, within the preceding five years, respecting one or more independent audits carried out by the firm, and any steps taken to deal with any such issues;
7. in connection with the annual review of the independent auditors' qualifications, to review and evaluate the lead partner of the independent auditors for the Company's account, and evaluate such other matters as the Committee may consider relevant to the engagement of the auditors, including views of Company management and internal finance employees, and whether the lead partner or auditing firm itself should be rotated;

8. to establish and maintain a policy or policies for the Company's hiring of employees or former employees of the independent auditor who participated in any capacity in the audit of the Company;

9. to obtain from the independent auditors in connection with any audit a timely report relating to the Company's annual audited financial statements describing all critical accounting policies and practices used, all alternative treatments within generally accepted accounting principles for policies and practices related to material items that have been discussed with management, ramifications of the use of such alternative disclosures and treatments, and the treatment preferred by the independent auditors, and any material written communications between the independent auditors and management, such as any "management" letter or schedule of unadjusted differences; and

10. on a periodic basis, to communicate with and receive updates from the Audit Committee of Willis Limited.

Financial Reporting and Internal Audit

With respect to financial reporting principles and policies and internal audit procedures:

1. to consider any reports or communications (and management's and/or the internal audit department's responses thereto) submitted to the Committee by the independent auditors required by or referred to in Public Company Accounting Oversight Board ("PCAOB") Auditing Standard No. 1301, as it may be modified or supplemented, or other applicable law or regulation;

2. to oversee the activities of the internal audit department, which shall report functionally to the Committee and its chair and administratively to the Company's CFO, and approve the hiring, termination and compensation of the Head of Internal Audit;

3. to periodically review, with the Head of Internal Audit, any significant difficulties, disagreements with management, or scope restrictions encountered in the course of the function's work;

4. to meet with senior management, the independent auditors and the director (and/or other personnel) of the internal audit department, which meetings may be held either in person, or by means of such telephone, electronic or other communication facilities as allows all persons participating in the meeting to communicate with each other simultaneously and instantaneously.

- to discuss the scope of the annual audit and to review with the independent auditors any audit problems or difficulties, including any restrictions on the scope of the independent auditor's activities or on access to information, and management's response to same;
- to review the audited annual financial statements and unaudited quarterly financial statements, including the Company's disclosures under "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" and to recommend to the Board whether the audited financial statements should be included in the Company's annual report on Form 10-K;
- to review disclosures made to the Committee by the Company's CEO and CFO during their certification process for the annual report on Form 10-K and quarterly report on Form 10-Q regarding any significant deficiencies in the design or operation of internal controls or material weaknesses therein and any fraud involving management or other employees who have a significant role in the Company's system of internal controls;

- to review and discuss with management or the independent auditors, as appropriate, the Company's key performance indicators and non-GAAP measures;
 - to discuss any significant changes to the Company's audit and accounting principles, policies, controls, procedures and practices proposed or contemplated by management, the internal audit department and the independent auditors;
 - to discuss, as appropriate: (i) any major issues regarding accounting principles and financial statement presentation, including any significant changes in the Company's selection or application of accounting principles, major issues as to the adequacy of the Company's internal controls, and any special audit steps adopted in light of material control deficiencies; (ii) any critical audit matters (CAMs) and related CAM disclosures arising from the current period audit; (iii) analyses prepared by management, the internal audit department or the independent auditors setting forth significant financial reporting issues and judgments made in connection with the preparation of the financial statements, including analyses of the effects of alternative GAAP methods on the financial statements; (iv) material written communications between the independent auditor and management, such as any management letter or schedule of unadjusted differences; and (v) the effect of regulatory and accounting initiatives, as well as off-balance sheet structures, on the financial statements of the Company;
 - to review management's implementation of recommendations of internal audit and the independent auditors, including to address CAMs;
 - to review and approve annual internal audit plans and all material changes thereto for the Company including the adequacy of the internal audit budget and resources to accomplish such plans;
 - to review and discuss with management, and the independent auditors, as appropriate, financial reporting errors and make, or recommend to the Board, any conclusions regarding whether any financial statements either previously issued or contemplated to be issued, covering one or more years or interim or current periods for which the Company is required to issue financial statements under applicable rules, should no longer be relied upon because of such error; and to review and approve related disclosures related by applicable rules and regulations of the SEC;
 - to review internal audit findings and recommendations, reports to management in connection therewith and the timelines and thoroughness of management's responses thereto including related implementation and corrective action; and
 - to review and discuss with management and the independent auditors, as appropriate, environmental, social and governance-related (ESG) financial disclosures with the SEC or required under Irish law as well as in other publicly available reports and documents.
5. to discuss, including, if appropriate, with the independent auditors, guidelines and policies

governing the process by which senior management of the Company and the relevant departments of the Company assess and manage the Company's exposure to risk, and to discuss the Company's major financial risk exposures and the steps management has taken to monitor and control such exposures;

6. to discuss with the Company's General Counsel any significant legal matters that may have a material effect on the Company's business, financial statements or compliance policies, including material notices to or inquiries received from governmental agencies; and any complaints or concerns received from employees or third parties regarding questionable accounting, internal accounting controls, or auditing, or securities law matters;

7. to discuss the Company's earnings press releases (paying particular attention to any use of non-GAAP information) as well as financial information and earnings guidance provided to analysts and rating agencies;

8. to obtain reports from management of any significant related party transactions and to review and approve such transactions in accordance with applicable Company policies;

9. to review, discuss and approve the Company's Irish Statutory Accounts; and

10. to conduct a review under Irish law of the Company's corporate and tax arrangements and structures in connection with the Directors' Compliance Statement contained in the Irish Statutory Accounts, and to report to the full Board in respect of any findings.

Risk Management

With respect to risk management, the Committee shall oversee the Company's management of material enterprise risks. In doing so, the Committee recognizes the responsibilities delegated to other committees by the Board and understands that other Board committees may emphasize specific risk monitoring through their respective activities and that, because the Committee's role is oversight, the Company's management is responsible for the day-to-day management of risks. In connection therewith, the Committee shall have the following duties:

1. to discuss and review with management its overall efforts and strategy to evaluate and manage the Company's business, from an enterprise risk management perspective;

2. to oversee management's approach to risk identification, risk tolerance, risk assessment and risk management for strategic and financial risks facing the Company, as well as operational risks arising out of responsibilities identified in this charter, including, without limitation, risks related to compliance and internal control matters (it being acknowledged that other Board committees have responsibility with respect to the oversight of certain specified risks, including compensation and human capital risks, operational and operational transformation risks, and governance risks, as set forth in their respective charters);

3. to identify the elements of enterprise risk that are most significant and the prioritization of business risks;

4. to receive reports and presentations from management, including as appropriate the Chief Risk Officer and other members of management, or any outside advisors, such as the independent auditors, compensation consultant or legal counsel, regarding risks the Company faces and the Company's risk assessment and management (other than those areas specifically covered by other Board committees);

5. to oversee the overall enterprise risk management framework and practices of the Company, including without limitation: overseeing the framework and practices used by the Company to identify, assess and manage key risks facing the Company and significant emerging risks, overseeing the process to develop and monitor the status of plans for risk mitigation for the most significant risks to the Company, monitoring the effectiveness generally of its enterprise risk mitigation strategies and activities;

6. to assist the Board, as appropriate, with respect to the review of any new material transaction requiring Board approval;

7. to review and make recommendations regarding the adequacy of the Company's resources to perform its enterprise risk management responsibilities;

8. to recommend that the Board assign oversight responsibilities for certain risk areas to the Board's committees as appropriate; and

9. to confer at least annually with the chairs of the other Board committees concerning any risk assessment delegated to such committees pursuant to their charters, such as the Human Capital and Compensation Committee's compensation risk assessment required by SEC regulations.

Reporting and Recommendations

With respect to reporting and recommendations, prepare and issue the following reports and provide them to the Board:

- any report or other disclosures, including any recommendation of the Committee, required by the rules of the SEC to be included in the Company's annual proxy statement;
- such recommendations with respect to the matters covered by this charter and other matters as the Committee may deem necessary or appropriate; and
- an annual performance evaluation of the Committee, which evaluation shall compare the performance of the Committee with the requirements of this charter and set forth the goals and objectives of the Committee for the upcoming year; the performance evaluation shall also recommend to the Board any improvements to the Committee's charter deemed necessary or desirable by the Committee; the performance evaluation by the Committee shall be conducted in such manner as the Committee deems appropriate; the report to the Board may take the form of an oral report by the chair of the Committee or any other member of the Committee designated by the Committee to make such report.

The Committee will also report to the Board on the major items covered by the Committee at each Committee meeting, and provide additional reports to the Board as the Committee may determine to be appropriate.

Compliance

With respect to compliance, to discuss with the Chief Compliance Officer the compliance and regulatory risks of the Company, and receive a report outlining the main activities of the compliance function, material regulatory interactions review, progress against the annual compliance plan and the adequacy of resources. In addition, the Committee shall establish and oversee procedures for the receipt, retention and treatment of (1) complaints regarding accounting, internal accounting controls, auditing and federal securities law matters; (2) the confidential, anonymous submission by employees of concerns regarding questionable accounting, internal accounting controls, auditing and federal securities law matters; and (3) other matters reported by employees under the Company's whistleblowing policy.

Resources and Authority

The Committee shall have the resources and authority appropriate to discharge its duties and responsibilities. In particular, it will be authorized to engage independent auditors for special audits, reviews and other procedures and to engage outside counsel and other advisors, experts or consultants as it determines necessary to carry out its duties or otherwise deems appropriate, without seeking approval of the Board or management. The Committee shall receive appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, from the Company for payment of compensation for any such advisors, experts and consultants, and for the payment of ordinary administrative expenses that are necessary or appropriate in carrying out the Committee's duties. The Committee is also empowered to meet with Company officers, as necessary, and seek any information it requires from employees – all of whom are directed to cooperate with the Committee's request – or external parties so authorized by the Committee.

Limitation of Role

While the Committee has the duties and powers set forth in this charter, it is not the duty of the Committee to plan or conduct audits or to determine that the Company's financial statements and disclosures are complete and accurate and are in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and applicable rules and regulations. These are the responsibilities of the Company's management and the independent auditors.

Reliance on Others

Nothing in this charter is intended to preclude or impair any protection provided by applicable law for good faith reliance by members of the Committee on reports or other information provided by others.

December 2023